

Andreas MUNDT

Andreas Mundt is President of the German Bundeskartellamt (Federal Cartel Office) since December 2009. Previous to this he had been Director of the General Policy Division of the Bundeskartellamt since 2005. From 1991 to 1993 he worked in the Federal Ministry of Economics. He then was a member of staff of the parliamentary group of the Free Democratic Party (FDP) in the German Bundestag from 1993 to 2000, responsible for labour and social law. In 2000 he joined the Bundeskartellamt as rapporteur. In addition to experience in this function in various decision divisions he was Head of the International Section from 2001 to 2005. He has published various articles on competition law.

Andreas Mundt is married and has three children.